

Hanukkah Trip 2014 Hike in the desert!

You are welcome to join 10,000 scouts to a challenging experience in the desert of Israel!

Background

Israel Scouts Hanukkah Trips are traditional 4 days trips in the Negev - the Israeli desert. These trips are special for the large number of Scouts participants (about 10,000!) and for the challenging experience including long hikes, cooking in campfires and sleeping in tents.

In the year of 2014 we will have 17 trips in different roots in the south of Israel with a total number of 10,000 girl and boy scouts.

Aims

The aim of the trip is to meet, talk and learn from each other about the main theme: culture inclusion of diverse population, focused in the Negev Bedouin.

Dates:

December 2014 – dates will be published on June 2014.

Preparations:

All the essential information for the preparation of the event will be made available in our website.

Participant's profile

Scouts aged 16 to 18 able to communicate well in English.

At list 1 leader for every 15 participants, aged 18 to 25.

Security and Medical care

The trip is approved by the Israeli police, the Nature Protection Society, Israeli Defense Force, Education Minister and the Scout movement. The trip will be accompanied by qualified paramedics and hired security guards.

Fee and terms of payment

The fee for participants and patrol leaders includes accommodation, food, group bus travels, security, medical care, sites entry, bags transfer between the parking places and more.

Participants: 250 EUR

Leaders: 180 EUR

A Payment website will be open soon. Participants can register online until 1 November 2014.

Additional information

If you need any further information or additional support please contact Dor Posner - dor@zofim.org.il

